STANDARD RATE:
Deadline Date:
April 11, 2008

We hereby apply for exhibit space in the AMOA International Expo to be conducted on the dates shown above. We understand that upon acceptance by Show Management, this application becomes a contract, under the terms and conditions set forth here and on the reverse, which we have read, understand and accept. We understand that booth spaces will be assigned according to "a point system based on seniority". We understand that as a condition of acceptance of this Exhibit Application/Contract, we must ensure that a Parental Advisory Disclosure Message (consistent with the Coin-Operated Video Game Parental Advisory System) is placed on each coin-operated video game to be displayed in our exhibit space at AMOA International Expo. We will accept the booth space assigned by Show Management, and agree to accept reassignment, if necessary, to create a more effective exposition. As a current member of Amusement & Music Operators Association (AMOA), we agree that the Member Rates listed below shall apply only if, as of the first day listed for the Exposition, we are a member in good standing of the Amusement & Music Operators Association (AMOA), and have paid our dues as specified by the Association. As a new member, we will apply for Amusement & Music Operators Association (AMOA) membership, so that our application is approved by August 29, 2008, and will include our first year's dues ($500) with our membership application. We understand that our Exhibit Space Application/Contract will be forwarded with a booth deposit based on a non-member rate. If approved for membership, we will receive AMOA booth space at the member rate, and will be credited the square foot difference. Our choice of space by booth number(s) shown on the floor plan is:

A. Please indicate preferred booth number/location:

RULES, REGULATIONS AND SERVICES

Read Carefully — Avoid Misunderstandings

(Note: The abbreviation “AMOA” refers to the Amusement & Music Operators Association; the word “Exhibitor” refers to applicant for exhibit space named on reverse; “Exhibit Facility” and/or “Facility” refers to the Las Vegas Convention Center, Las Vegas, Nevada; “Show Management” refers to William T. Glasgow, Inc., its agents or employees.)

These regulations have been established for the mutual benefit and protection of Exhibitors, Visitors and AMOA. With such additions or changes as may be made from time to time, they are an integral part of the contract to which the Exhibitor agrees.

GENERAL

1. Days and hours for move-in, for exhibiting, and for move-out will be specified in the Exhibitor Manual to be provided to each Exhibitor.
2. Liability: (A) Although guard service will be furnished for the Exposition, neither AMOA, Show Management, nor The Facility in which the exhibits are held can or will be responsible for damage to, loss, or theft of property belonging to or injury to, any Exhibitor, his agent, employees, business invitees, visitors or guests. Each Exhibitor is expected to carry his own appropriate insurance. (B) Exhibitor agrees to protect, save, and hold the Amusement & Music Operator Association, Show Management and The Facility forever harmless for any damages or charges imposed for violations of any law or ordinance, whether occasioned by the negligence of the Exhibitor or those holding under the Exhibitor, except for any damages or charges directly caused by the negligence of any of the foregoing indemnified persons or entities, as well as to strictly comply with the applicable terms and conditions contained in the agreement between The Facility and the Amusement & Music Operators Association regarding the exhibition premises; and, further, Exhibitor shall at all times protect, indemnify, save, and hold harmless the Amusement & Music Operators Association, Show Management and The Facility against and from any/all losses, costs (including attorneys' fees), damage, liability, or expense arising from or out of or by reason of any accident or bodily injury or other occurrence to any person or persons, including the Exhibitor, its agents, employees, and business invitees, which arises from or out of or by reason of said Exhibitor's occupancy and use of the exhibition premises or a part thereof, except for those matters directly caused by the negligence of the foregoing indemnified person or entities.

CANCELLATION / DOWNSIZING

3. Upon acceptance of this application by the Amusement & Music Operator Association, it shall be a legally binding contract between the Exhibitor and the Amusement & Music Operators Association; provided that either party may cancel this contract on condition that written notice of such cancellation is received by the bargaining party at least 120 days prior to the scheduled opening date of the Show as provided herein.

There will be a $200 processing fee charged for any cancellation made after the space application is received and processed in the Show Office.

A full refund will be made minus the $200 processing charge if cancellation in writing is received before May 9, 2008.

A 50% penalty of total downsized space cost, which includes the processing fee, for any cancellation received between May 9, 2008 and July 7, 2008.

No refund after July 7, 2008, regardless if space is resold.

Full amount of space rental will be refunded only on condition that such cancellation is made by the Amusement & Music Operators Association.

SERVICES

4. Standard Booth: The booth furnished consists of draped back wall,

8 feet high, and draped side dividers, 36 inches high. Exhibits 10 feet in depth, shall be so arranged as to not obstruct the general view of other exhibits, and shall be limited to 8 feet in height. Booths 10 feet in depth located on AN OUTER PERIMETER WALL can be built to a height of 10 feet. Peninsula and island booths may be built to a height not to exceed 16 feet. The back wall of peninsula booths may be built to a height of 16 feet but must drop down to a height of 4 feet and must remain at the 4 foot level, 5 feet in from both side aisles.

5. Standard Booth Name Sign: One standard sign, showing Exhibitor's Name, City and State, and booth number(s) will be supplied by AMOA.
6. Labor: Exhibitors will be responsible for labor charges they incur in connection with the assembly, draping, repairs and dismantling of their own booths. In order to conform to union contract rules and regulations, exhibitors are required to use accredited union personnel.
7. Security: Uniformed guards will be used to help protect the display area.
8. Badges: Exhibitors and visitors must wear badges for identification.
9. Other Requirements: Each Exhibitor may provide his own booth furnishings, and may specify his own independent service contractor for the erection and dismantling of the booth provided that written notice of intent to use an independent contractor is received by Show Management no later than August 11, 2008 and that AMOA's labor and insurance regulations applying to independent contractors are met. Local regulations, licensing and labor agreements must be followed. For convenience the official decorator will rent, on advance order, appropriate furniture of all kinds, carpet and other accessories, and also will provide signs (other than standard booth identification) at Exhibitor's expense. An Exhibitor Manual, to be supplied, will contain service order forms and additional information. Exhibits will not be permitted to leave the building at any time after installation until final closing of the Show unless special permission is obtained in writing from Show Management.

RESTRICTIONS

10. Safety Precautions: All construction material must conform to standard safety practices. Table and back wall drapes supplied by the official decorator, and those supplied by the Exhibitor, together with textile or paper displays and decorations, must be flame-proofed. No combustible decorations, such as crepe or tissue paper, cardboard or corrugated paper, may be used at any time. All packaging containers and materials are to be removed from the floor and may not be stored under tables or behind displays. Equipment powered by internal-combustion motors cannot be operated during show hours. Helium balloons and other self-rising items are prohibited inside the Facility. Displays are subject to inspection and approval for safety by the Fire Department of the City of Las Vegas.
11. Irregular Activities: No person, firm or organization which has not regularly contracted with AMOA for occupancy of space in the Show will be permitted to display or demonstrate any products, processes or services, to solicit orders, wear any identification other than that of the contracting Exhibitor, or to distribute advertising or other materials at the exposition. Any infringement from this regulation will result in prompt removal of the offending person from the Facility. Exhibitors may not enter the booths of other Exhibitors without invitation; no Exhibitor may call or invite a visitor out of one exhibit and into his own. Exhibitors must remain within their own exhibit space in distributing literature, product samples, or other materials; the aisles may not be used for this purpose.

12. Exhibitors may not serve or dispense food or beverages of any type from their booths.
13. All booths must remain open and operational during all show hours and all demonstration equipment must be operated without charge.
14. Circulars or advertising matter of any description may be used or distributed only within the booth assigned to the Exhibitor presenting such material. Only literature published or approved by Show Management may be distributed at the registration desk, in the registration area, in the meeting rooms, in the Exposition Halls, or in transportation under lease to AMOA.
15. The use or display of any printed materials, photographs or presentations which may be judged as lewd, lacking in dignity or not conducive to a business environment are prohibited. This includes any personnel, models/demonstrators who must be properly clothed and appropriately dressed at all times. Show Management will give one warning to correct any violations. A continued violation will result in the disconnection of electrical service and draping off of the booth.
16. Use of sound will be permitted, where appropriate to the display, provided sound is maintained at not more than 85dB peaks, on the C weighted scale as measured on a Scott Instrument Lab Type 452 Sound Level Meter (ANSI Type 2), on the "SLOW" meter position, in any and all adjacent exhibit areas. AMOA reserves the right to restrict Exhibitor's use of sound and other devices which may interfere with the best interest of AMOA as a whole. Show Management is authorized and empowered to disconnect the supply of electricity to any Exhibitor who exceeds said Sound Level maximum, without any liability to said Exhibitor. Failure to comply will result in loss of booth power and a $1,000 fine.
17. Exhibitors or their agents may not display, demonstrate, offer for sale, sell or advertise any products (including but not limited to counterfeit goods) which do not comply in all respects with all federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances.
18. All coin-operated video games to be displayed at AMOA must carry a Parental Advisory Disclosure Message (consistent with the Coin-Operated Video Game Parental Advisory System). Show Management will monitor compliance by Exhibitors with the Coin-Operated Video Game Parental Advisory System and will disconnect electrical service to any coin-operated video game that lacks a Parental Advisory Disclosure Message in a prominently visible location.
19. Exhibitors must comply at all times with all local, state and federal laws and regulations.
20. In the event that AMOA in good faith believes that an Exhibitor has violated any of the restrictions set forth in this contract, including the restrictions concerning the display, demonstration, and offer for sale of counterfeit otherwise illegitimate products, AMOA and/or Show Management shall have the right to a) inspect any and all components (Internal and external) of the product in question and/or b) request the immediate removal of such product. If such removal is not immediately effected, AMOA and/or Show Management shall have the right to take such further actions as it shall deem necessary including confiscation of the offending product and/or removal of the Exhibitor and its exhibits from the Exposition. Exhibitor and its agent knowingly waives any claims which may arise as a result of AMOA or Show Management's activities pursuant to this provision.

REMOVAL OF GOODS

21. In the event any Exhibitor fails to remove their exhibit materials in the allotted time, Show Management and AMOA reserve the right to ship the materials through a carrier of its own choosing or will place the materials in a storage warehouse subject to the Exhibitor's disposition at the Exhibitor's expense.
22. Only those products and/or services considered by Show Management as relating directly to the coin-operated amusement industry, including the business management of such enterprises, may be exhibited at AMOA.

23. Complaints of any violation of rules and regulations are to be made promptly to Show Management, and Exhibitors and their personnel agree to abide by the decision of Show Management.

SPACE ALLOCATION PROCEDURES

24. Products of no more than one manufacturer may be shown in any one booth and subletting of space by the exhibitor is prohibited. Sharing or subleasing of space to another company will result in loss of seniority points.

Exhibit Space will be assigned as follows:

- a) Exhibit space will be assigned according to a point system.
- b) The Point System will apply to all Exhibit Space Applications received by the deadline date of April 11, 2008, and accompanied by a check for 50% deposit of the total cost of exhibit space, less Early Bird Discount deposit.
- c) Ten (10) points will be awarded to an exhibitor for each year they exhibited in AMOA Show.
- d) Two (2) points will be added for each 100 square feet of exhibit space contracted for in each of the AMOA shows.
- e) In cases of comparable point totals for exhibitors requesting the same space, AMOA members will be given priority on space selection.
- f) A company may acquire another company's seniority points if there is a buy-out or acquisition of the entire company, but cannot combine the points of both companies, but select the highest point total.
- g) When a company purchases a single product or single product line from another company, it does not acquire the seniority points.
- h) If the selling company remains as an exhibitor, or if the seniority points become part of the assets for the buying company, then the seller forfeits its seniority if in future years they become exhibitors.
- i) Any space remaining after the deadline date will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

FORCE MAJEURE

In the event the Las Vegas Convention Center or any part of the exhibit areas thereof are unavailable whether for the entire event or a portion of the event as a result of fire, flood, tempest, or any other such cause or as a result of governmental intervention, malicious damage, act of war, strike, lock-out, labor dispute, riot or any other cause or agency over which Show Management has no control, or should Show Management decide that because of any such cause it is necessary to cancel, postpone or re-site the Exposition or reduce the installation time, Exposition time, or move-out time, Show Management shall not be liable to indemnify or reimburse the Exhibitor in respect of any damage, liability or loss, direct or indirect, arising as a result thereof.

AMENDMENTS

25. Show Management shall have full power to make or amend these rules.
